

USA TODAY/GALLUP POLL

ELECTION 2012 SWING STATES POLLING-- WAVE 8

Results are based on telephone interviews conducted August 6-11 and 13, 2012, on the Gallup Daily tracking survey, with a random sample of -1,095—adults, aged 18+, living in Colorado, Florida, Iowa, Michigan, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia and Wisconsin, selected using random-digit dial sampling. The data represent a subset of Gallup’s national daily tracking survey for August 6-12.

For results based on the total sample of “swing state” residents, one can say with 95% confidence that the margin of error is ± 4 percentage points.

For results based on the total sample of -970—registered voters in battleground states, one can say with 95% confidence that the margin of error is ± 4 percentage points.

Now, thinking about what may happen if Barack Obama is re-elected president and what may happen if Mitt Romney is elected president this November,

11. (Asked of those who gave same responses in Q.9 and Q.10) If you had to choose, do you think you and your family would be better off in four years—[ROTATED: if Mitt Romney is elected president (or better off) if Barack Obama is re-elected president]?

COMBINED RESULTS (Q.9/10/11): BASED ON FULL SAMPLE

	Better off if Romney elected	Better off if Obama elected	Same regardless (vol.)	No opinion
